

Division of Criminal Justice
Medicaid Fraud Control Unit
Forensic Accountant/Auditor - Civil Enforcement Division
Reference No. MFC/CED_PR_FAA_6021 (Pearl River, Rockland County)

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit is seeking forensic accountants/auditors for its Civil Enforcement Division in its Pearl River (Rockland County) to participate in complex fraud investigations in the healthcare industry, utilizing the New York State False Claims Act, Social Services Law 145-b, and the Executive Law, and, when appropriate, to support prosecution of crimes uncovered by such investigations. Many of our actions involve working with whistleblowers who file qui tam complaints and coordination with other state and federal civil and prosecutorial anti-fraud agencies resulting in large-scale recoveries.

Candidates for the position of forensic accountant/auditor must possess excellent analytical, communication, and organizational skills, and a minimum of a four (4) year college degree, either specifically in finance, accounting, or economics, or equivalent post-college work experience. Applicants should be proficient with spreadsheet, database and presentation software. Experience with statistical sampling is also a plus. A CPA is not required; the position qualifies for CPA accreditation purposes. Rating as a certified fraud examiner is a plus. Applicants will be considered for both entry-level and experienced assignments. The ability to work independently and collaboratively as a member of a team is essential.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
