

Supervising Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) - Syracuse

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, as well as search warrants, which include the use of still and video photography. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional organized crime - gambling, loan sharking, extortion, and narcotics, among others. The qualifications for this specific position include: Experience in organizational leadership; expert interviewing skills; expertise in eavesdropping surveillance and executing search warrants; extensive experience leading investigations of organized crime; experience using the SYTECH wiretap system; experience investigating cases dealing with financial improprieties; experience performing protective security for dignitaries; possession of a bachelor's degree; having established law enforcement contacts on the local, state and federal levels; and knowledge of Syracuse and surrounding areas.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_OCTF_SYR_8488_121215 as outlined below. Deadline for responding is December 12, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_OCTF_SYR_8488_121215. Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_OCTF_SYR_8488_121215) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

The Office of the Attorney General is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, or disability.