

Investigator: Auto Insurance Fraud Unit (AIFU) – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against over 380 defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

This position leads the AIFU/Computer Forensic Investigations Team, which provides tactical support to AIFU Investigators. The qualifications for this position are: Experience conducting undercover investigations; experience in threat assessment; ability to fluently speak, read, write, translate and transcribe conversations in Russian; Bachelor's degree in a law enforcement field and a minimum of one year of college level computer courses; three or more years of experience at the supervisory level in computer operations; having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Must be willing to complete requirements, which involves many hours of self-study, to become a Certified Forensic Computer Examiner.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_AIFU_NYC_9329_030816 as outlined below. Deadline for responding is March 8, 2016.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_AIFU_NYC_9329_030816. Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_AIFU_NYC_9329_030816) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

The Office of the Attorney General is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, or disability.
