

Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) - White Plains

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, as well as search warrants, which include the use of still and video photography. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional organized crime - gambling, loan sharking, extortion, and narcotics, among others.

The qualifications for this position are: Extensive experience conducting physical surveillance, electronic eavesdropping and investigating organized crime activity; experience conducting investigations involving gang activity, narcotics, and illegal firearms; experience testifying at grand juries in state and federal jurisdictions; experience as an affiant on search warrants and eavesdropping warrants and knowledgeable of the criteria required to obtain such; experience working in a law enforcement task force environment; and having established contacts within the law enforcement community serving New York City and the surrounding areas.

Preferred qualifications: Fluency in English and Spanish.

Must have good computer skills; proficiency in Microsoft Office applications is preferred.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_OCTF_WP_6795_032516 as outlined below. Deadline for responding is March 25, 2016.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_OCTF_WP_6795_032516 . Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_OCTF_WP_6795_032516) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

The Office of the Attorney General is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, or disability.