

Special Investigations and Prosecutions Unit
Deputy Chief – New York City
Reference No. SIPU_NYC_DC_3033

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced prosecutor to join its Special Investigations and Prosecutions Unit in Manhattan. The Special Investigations and Prosecutions Unit was created in July 2015 in response to the issuance of an Executive Order by the Governor of the State of New York appointing the Attorney General as a special prosecutor “to investigate, and if warranted, prosecute certain matters involving the death of an unarmed civilian . . . caused by a law enforcement officer.” The Unit includes experienced homicide prosecutors and investigators throughout the State.

We are seeking a prosecutor with at least eight (8) years of experience. Candidates must have substantial grand jury and trial experience; experience investigating and prosecuting homicide cases and/or cases involving alleged law enforcement misconduct; and excellent writing skills.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the OAG be citizens of the United States.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
