

Division of Economic Justice
Internet Bureau – New York City
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. INT_NYC_AAG_3032

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an attorney with experience in information technology and consumer protection law for its Bureau of Internet and Technology in New York City. The Bureau of Internet and Technology is responsible for the enforcement of New York's privacy and consumer protection laws in the online and tech environment, as well as for enforcement of New York's data breach notification laws. In recent years, the Office has investigated a wide range of issues affecting the Internet, including spyware, spam, online privacy, child safety, gambling, free speech and fraud. Recent investigations have included Daily Fantasy Sports, Broadband Internet Speeds, and the teen chat website Ask.fm.

The ideal candidate will have at least six (6) years of practice experience with a strong background in litigation, excellent writing skills, and a commitment to public service. Candidates who have an understanding and/or experience in Internet legal issues, the Internet and/or technology are strongly preferred. Responsibilities will include target development, civil investigations, and litigating affirmative cases on behalf of the Office, as well as consumer outreach and drafting legislation.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
