

Division of Economic Justice

Consumer Frauds and Protection Bureau- New York City

Project Attorney (6-Month Term Position)

Job Posting Code: CPB_PA_3034

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an attorney with understanding and/or experience in consumer fraud, telecommunications law and/or experience with the Internet and/or computer technology industries for a temporary position in the Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection.

The Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection, part of the Economic Justice Division, prosecutes businesses and individuals engaged in fraudulent, misleading, deceptive or illegal trade practices. In addition to litigating, the Bureau mediates thousands of complaints each year from individual consumers.

The selected candidate will be part of a joint investigative team in support of ongoing investigations with Consumer Frauds and the Bureau of Internet & Technology, also in the Office of the Attorney General. This position is for a six (6) month term and is located in New York City.

In addition to excellent research and writing skills, the ideal candidate must have a background in Internet law and policy disputes of the last decade, including those related to Net Neutrality, interconnection, and similar issues.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
