

Division of Criminal Justice
Criminal Enforcement and Financial Crimes – New York City
Legal Support Analyst
Reference No. CEFC_ NYC_LSA_6024

The Criminal Enforcement and Financial Crimes Bureau of the Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking to hire a Legal Support Analyst (LSA). The analyst will work closely with Assistant Attorneys General, investigators, and forensic auditors to investigate and prosecute securities fraud, automobile insurance fraud, money laundering, and other related crimes in New York State. Specifically, the analyst will be responsible for conducting investigative and legal support tasks, such as searches of various databases, drafting subpoenas, writing reports, and analyzing large volumes of phone and bank records. In addition, the analyst will assist the attorneys from case inception to final disposition by performing assignments such as scheduling witnesses, processing documents to turn over during discovery, and, if necessary, testifying in court proceedings. Please note that this is not an attorney position and LSAs do not typically conduct legal research. This position is located in New York City.

Candidates must possess a Bachelor's degree with investigative and/or legal experience, preferably in a leadership role. In addition, candidates must be able to multitask and be able to adapt to rapidly changing case priorities. The most competitive candidates will have experience with investigative programs, such as Pen-Link, Analyst's Notebook, and Accurint.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
