

Assistant Chief Investigator: Investigations - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

This position is assigned to the Dignitary Protection Detail for the Attorney General.

The qualifications for this specific position include: Extensive experience in dignitary/executive protection; supervision experience; conversational Spanish; expert interviewing and interrogation skills; extensive experience in the investigation of confidential and sensitive matters; advanced skills in various types of surveillance and computer research and analysis; minimum of two years of experience auditing financial records; established law enforcement contacts on various levels; and, knowledge of NYC and surrounding areas. Bachelor's degree preferred.

Must be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and be able to travel extensively.

Please respond to posting number Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_6827_111116, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is November 11, 2016.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends. Will be assigned a Blackberry for possible on-call duty during off-hours.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link:
