

Deputy Chief Investigator: Investigations – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

The qualifications for this specific position include: Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice; experience supervising at least 25 subordinates involved in the investigation of various criminal activities, such as organized crime and insurance fraud; ability to effectively manage multiple investigations in a variety of disciplines; experience investigating internal affairs and corruption; facility interacting with other law enforcement agencies; and law enforcement contacts in the greater metropolitan New York City area.

Please respond to posting Reference No. INV_INVS_NY_6616_81415, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 14, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_INVS_NY_6616_81415. Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_INVS_NY_6616_81415) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

The Office of the Attorney General is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, or disability.
