Investigations Division
Office of Chief Investigator – New York City
Student Assistant for Investigations
Reference No. OCI_NYC_PUGS_FALL_2025

Fall Paid, Part-Time Placements for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is September 12, 2025*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Investigations Division is seeking talented and motivated undergraduate students for fall placements. The selected students will report to the Detective Supervisor/Executive Officer for Office of the Chief of Investigator.

The Investigations Division is comprised of sworn police officer investigators and civil investigators who work throughout the state. Many of the police officer investigators have specialized skills such as computer forensics; proficiency in languages other than English; forensic accounting; and technical surveillance like wiretaps, bugs, and cameras. Investigators work on cases throughout OAG, including with the Organized Crime Task Force, Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, Automobile Insurance Fraud Unit, Major Investigations Unit, and State Counsel.

Duties:
- Supporting the division's recruitment and hiring efforts by assisting in the development of programs designed to expand the diversity of the unit through marketing our job opportunities to colleges and universities;
- Developing a program to identify management training programs that would be suitable for senior staff;
- Assisting with the application for Federal grant funds to be used for de-escalation training; and
- Participating in the ongoing development of the division's policy and procedure manual.

Qualifications:
- Candidates must be majoring in criminal justice, criminology, police studies, forensics, or another relevant area of study;
- Familiarity with and understanding of the issues and politics surrounding policing reform, criminal justice reform, and racial justice and the communities that are most impacted by these issues to support the division's efforts to better serve all New Yorkers;
- Excellent analytical, verbal communication, writing, and organizational skills;
- Proactive with sound judgement and the ability to work independently and as a productive member of a team;
- Comfortable and adept at using technology such as MS Office to complete work assignments; and
- Proficiency in languages other than English is desirable.

Fall Program Details
- The format of this placement is hybrid. Students report to their designated workstation two or three (2-3) days per week. On the days students work remotely, they need a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework.
- At the time students receive and accept a paid placement offer, they must provide written documentation demonstrating they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who will be starting college/university during the 2025-26 academic year will not be considered.
- The undergraduate student hired for this placement will work part-time for the fall semester (15 hours/week for 12 weeks for a total of 180 paid hours). The undergraduate student will be hired as a student assistant and be paid the hourly rate of $17.75.

- *Applications are accepted online until September 12, 2025, and paid placement offers are made on a rolling basis.
- Students who are hired for the fall program may begin their placements on September 3, 2025, or after.
- United States (U.S.) citizenship and New York state residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.
- Applicants are encouraged to learn more about OAG bureaus and regional offices prior to submitting their applications by reviewing information that is available on the public website.

> Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
> The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.
