

Investigations Division
Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) – New York City
Detective Investigator
Reference No. INV_MFCU_NYC_7233_091726

Application Deadline is September 17, 2026

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in our Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) –New York City office. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

MFCU, the centerpiece of New York's efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced detectives to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

Detective Investigators work collaboratively in case specific teams with Assistant Attorneys General, analysts and forensic auditors to learn how to conduct highly complex criminal and civil investigations, using the highest level of professionalism, judgement and discretion.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement experience.
- Must have at least 10 years of experience at the criminal investigator level, or at the level of detective. The investigative experience must be in the investigation of complex crimes and criminal organizations.
- Must have a current NYS basic police academy certification or NYS specialized police investigator certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain such certification.
- Must possess a thorough knowledge of New York State Penal Law and Criminal Procedure Law, including the rules of evidence.
- Experience in conducting undercover investigations executing search and eavesdropping warrants.
- Experience testifying before grand juries, evidentiary hearings, and trials.
- Be a skilled communicator regarding report writing and verbal communication and be able to demonstrate those skill sets.
- Skilled in Microsoft Word, utilizing electronic commercial and government use databases.
- Established contacts within the law enforcement community serving the greater New York City metropolitan area.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

The annual salary for this position is $81,100. Appointments in New York City receive an additional $4,000 location pay. This position is overtime eligible. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
