Detective Investigator
Reference No. INV_OCTF_WP_8099_102326

Application Deadline is October 23, 2026

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for a Detective Investigator position located in White Plains, NY. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long-term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. Most of the Unit's investigations involve multiple jurisdictions and utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, execution of search and arrest warrants, and utilization of digital and technical equipment. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional and non-traditional organized crime. This includes investigations into gambling, loan sharking, extortion, narcotics, gun trafficking, human trafficking, and money laundering, among other criminal activity.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of law enforcement experience.
- Have a current NYS basic police academy certification or NYS specialized police investigator certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain such certification.
- Expertise conducting physical surveillance.
- Experience investigating the following types of cases: narcotics, gun trafficking, fraud, white collar and corruption crimes.
- Experience investigating traditional and non-traditional organized crime activities.
- Experience working as an undercover or conducting undercover investigations.
- Experience testifying in grand juries and/or trials in state and federal jurisdictions.
- Experience as an affiant on search warrants and eavesdropping warrants and knowledgeable of the criteria required to obtain such.
- Demonstrated progressive assumption of responsibility or initiative leading work groups towards organizational goals or objectives (I.e. served as lead investigator on complex cases or was point of contact to other agencies on task forces etc.)
- Experience working directly with law enforcement/government offices on the local, state and federal levels.
- Unwavering professionalism, personal integrity, and ability to uphold the highest levels of confidentiality and ethical standards.
- Demonstrated cultural competency and ability to interact professionally, respectfully, and effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and communities, while promoting fairness, impartiality, and public trust throughout the investigative process.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that Detective Investigators at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred qualifications:

- Bachelors degree or higher from an accredited college or university.
- Demonstrated adaptability and flexibility, including the ability to learn new investigative methods, technologies, and procedures and effectively respond to changing priorities and operational needs.
- Experience working in a law enforcement task force environment.

- Having established contacts within the law enforcement community serving the local office of the OCTF and the surrounding areas.
- Excellent computer skills to include Microsoft Office.
- Knowledge of and experience navigating various social media platforms.
- Fluency in a second language.

The annual salary for this position is $81,100. Appointments in White Plains receive an additional $4,150 location pay. This position is overtime eligible. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
