MFCU, the centerpiece of New York’s efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced detectives to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement experience.
- Must have a current NYS basic police academy certification or NYS specialized police investigator certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain such certification.
- Expert interviewing and interrogation skills.
- Experience conducting investigations involving special victims.
- Experience identifying pattern crimes.
- Experience in planning tactical operations.
- Experience implementing surveillance programs to monitor potential criminal activity.
- experience collecting evidence and executing search and arrest warrants.
- Knowledgeable of fraud and corruption investigations.
- Experience testifying in court.
- Established contacts at the city, state and federal levels within the law enforcement community in the area served by the Syracuse MFCU office.
- Demonstrated commitment to integrity, professionalism, ethical decision-making, and accountability.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver’s License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer’s Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred Qualifications:

- The ability to read, write, speak and understand a second language, in addition to English.

The annual salary for this position is $81,100. This position is overtime eligible. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.
