The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for a Detective Supervisor position located in our Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) –New York City office. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

MFCU, the centerpiece of New York's efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced detectives to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least 10 years' experience at the criminal investigator level, or at least the supervisory level of sergeant. The investigative/supervisory experience must be in the investigation of complex crimes and criminal organizations.
- Must have a current NYS basic police academy certification or NYS specialized police investigator certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain such certification.
- Possess a thorough knowledge of New York State Penal Law and Criminal Procedure Law, including the rules of evidence.
- Experience in conducting undercover investigations, executing search and eavesdropping warrants.
- Considerable experience testifying before grand juries, evidentiary hearings, and trials.
- Skilled communicator regarding report writing and verbal communication and be able to demonstrate those skill sets.
- Skilled in Microsoft Word, utilizing electronic commercial and government use databases.
- Demonstrated commitment to integrity, professionalism, ethical decision-making, and accountability.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Graduate of the FBI National Academy.
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college.
- Continuing Education Certificates in Law Enforcement, Behavioral Science, or communication skills training, from an accredited training provider such as the NYS Division of Criminal Justice Services.
- Expertise in Computer Forensics, Financial Crimes, or organized crime investigation.
- Fluency in a second language.

The annual salary for this position is $113,368. Appointments in New York City receive an additional $4,150 location pay. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
