Organized Crime Task Force—White Plains
Student Assistant for Investigations
Reference No. OCTF/INV_WP_PUGS_SPRING_2027

Spring Paid, Part-Time Placements for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is January 29, 2027*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) in White Plains has paid placements available during the 2027 Spring Program for undergraduate students. OCTF is responsible for investigating and prosecuting multi-county, multi-state, and multi-national organized criminal activities occurring within New York state.

The selected student will be exposed to techniques and procedures used during criminal investigations and expected to obey all applicable laws, regulations, and rules. The student will be supervised by and working with OAG detectives, attorneys, and other professional and legal support staff. This placement is an excellent opportunity for students who are considering law enforcement or criminal justice careers. Applications from juniors and seniors are preferred.

Duties:

- Perform various case preparation and other investigative support tasks including inventorying equipment and evidence, completing data entry assignments, and assisting OAG detectives with administrative tasks;
- Conduct open-source, social media, and other web-based searches;
- Review court records and other public documents, audio files, videos, and reports of interviews related to ongoing criminal investigations;
- Attend meetings with detectives and attorneys related to ongoing criminal investigations;
- Assist with preparing reports and PowerPoint presentations;
- Review and transcribe electronic communications; and
- Support other projects and assignments as needed.

Qualifications:

- Applicants must be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate degree program;
- Demonstrate an interest in the law, law enforcement, and criminal justice;
- High attention to detail, organized, and able to effectively manage and prioritize work assignments;
- Ability to analyze and synthesize large amounts of information;
- Familiarity with and proficiency using Microsoft Office, including PowerPoint, Excel, Word, and Outlook;
- Sound judgement with the ability to handle confidential information with sensitivity and discretion; and
- Strong interpersonal, verbal, and written communication skills.

Spring Program Details

- The format of this placement is in-office. Therefore, applicants must be available to report to 44 South Broadway in White Plains on their scheduled workdays.
- At the time students receive and accept a paid placement offer, they must provide written documentation demonstrating they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who are starting college/university during the 2026-27 academic year will not be considered.
- The undergraduate student hired for this placement will work part-time for the spring semester (15 hours/week for 12 weeks for a total of 180 paid hours). The undergraduate student will be hired as a student assistant and be paid the hourly rate of $18.55.
- *Applications are accepted online until January 29, 2027, and paid placement offers are made on a rolling basis.

- Students who are hired for the spring program may begin their placements on January 20, 2027, or after.
- United States (U.S.) citizenship and New York state residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.
